SKIS Painting Inc. Honored by the Painting Contractors Association for Commercial Restoration Work

2020 Best Commercial Restoration Award Recipient

St. Louis, Missouri (March 3, 2020) – SKIS Painting Inc in Renton, WA was awarded the Best Commercial Restoration Project Award from the Painting Contractors Association (PCA) for their work painting the McMenamins Elks Temple.

This Award is part of the Picture it Painted Professionally (PIPP) awards which honor the best work completed by PCA member contractors.

SKIS Painting Inc. primed and painted the 100-year-old, seven-story McMenamins Elks Temple. The painting portion of this space was part of a remodel to convert the building to a hotel and meeting space.

They primed and painted existing plaster and applied two coats of finish. The new design included over 25 colors and a 19-page color detail map.

The interior painting included 45 hotel rooms, two restaurants, a brewery, a concert hall, a game room, a hotel reception area, a hotel lobby, kitchens and six bars. Painted surfaces included 134,000 square feet of walls and 46,000 square feet of ceilings.

The Best Commercial Restoration Project Award was presented at PCA's annual EXPO event Feb. 19-21 in Phoenix-Glendale, Arizona.

The Painting Contractors Association (PCA) is an international trade association dedicated to the success of painting contractors through ethics, education and excellence. PCA provides best-in-class professional development training to support practitioners of the trade in reaching their greatest potential.
